

Answers from last week (WB 6.4.20) on Chapter 2

1. They were unkind and mean to him, they didn't like him. Evidence = he slept in a cupboard under the stairs.
2. The thin scar on his forehead that was shaped like a lightning bolt.
3. He throws tantrums, he is bossy, immature, spoiled and a bully towards Harry. Evidence: 'Dudley had punched him on the nose', 'a huge Dudley tantrum was coming on'.
4. When you swallow a lemon, it tastes very bitter and acidic and people often pull a tight, unpleasant face when they swallow a lemon. So Aunt Petunia was feeling shocked, appalled or surprised. Rowling has used a simile to describe the way Aunt Petunia looked.
5. It spoke to Harry, the glass disappeared and the snake slithered away to Brazil.
6. They were wizards and witches 'the strangers in the street seemed to know him' - they recognized Harry because he is a wizard too. These people had waved at him, shook his hand etc and then 'vanished the second time Harry tried to get a closer look'.
