

Answers from last week (WB 13.4.20)

1. A nice cup of tea
2. Derelict meaning: in a very poor condition. To give an image of the area looking very run down and war torn.
3. No because there were boarded up shops, and it is described as a place where people looks like they were ready to die. This shows that it is not a wealthy place with lots of thriving businesses and where people would want to inhabit.
4. Had, couldn't, feel. The author has used italics to emphasise the words to the reader.
5. That Dad was there.
6. When they had to leave the track.
