

Answers from last week (WB 20.4.20)

1. Dry stone walls.
2. She is happy about re-telling the story, it must have been a happy time because she uses the work mind showing informal, jokey style as if she is laughing to re-tell the memory.
3. A smile to show that she is remembering something happy from her past.
4. The train
5. It made him sick the first time.
6. Greedy

Martin Luther King (pages 1-7)

1, What did Martin's mother tell him about the 'White signs?'

2. What was the phrase that Martin's mother told him when he felt sad?

3. Why do you think Martin felt good when he heard the words that his father used to preach?

4. Who did Martin learn from before he became a minister?

5. How do you think this helped inspire him to become a minister?

6. What happened to Rosa Parks in December 1955?

Please read pages 8– 11 of Martin Luther King ready for next week.

