

Answers from Week 10 (WB 25.05.20) on Chapter 8 The Potions Master

1. A communal sleeping area—typically for those at boarding school, one a school trip or in a hostel.
2. A nosy, mysterious, unusual, tell-tale sort of man. Evidence: 'he knew the passageways of the school better than anyone and could pop us as suddenly as any of the ghosts'
3. She had made a difference to her match and was the only one to have done this—she showed the class how it had gone all silver and pointy.
4. A piece of cloth or material wrapped around one's head which can almost look like a hat.
5. Herbology with Professor Sprout, History of Magic with Professor Binns, Charms with Professor Flitwick, Transfiguration with Professor McGonagall, Defense against the Dark Arts with Professor Quirrell,
6. I imagine Snape to speak quickly (pace) as he has a lot to say and no time to waste, with not a lot of expression or passion in his voice—quite monotone, a low and eerie pitch.
7. A wild goat
8. He 'moaned in pain as angry red boils sprang up all over his arms and legs' - he must have felt humiliated as all the class are said to have stood on their chairs and stared at him, he also must have been embarrassed with red boils spring up on his body. Snape calls him an 'idiot boy' which must have made him feel even more silly.
9. An enormous black boarhound.
10. Own answers and interpretations.
