

CREATIVE DESIGN

TOP TEN

- Have a think about what Creative Design actually means and the sort of things you might be doing in this subject.
- On one particular day during the holidays count how many household products you use that help you in your daily life e.g. a kettle or an iron. Do you think this is a lot?
- Imagine you are starting your own company and you need a creative, eye-catching logo. Design your logo on a sheet of A4 paper. Be prepared to show your design to the class and talk about it.
- Visit Manchester Art Gallery and Whitworth Art Gallery.
- Research famous British fashion designers and look at images of their work. Choose your favourite design and write a short paragraph explaining why you like it.
- Go on a day trip to a city centre and take a range of photos of buildings you like the look of. Why do you like these particular buildings? Are they modern buildings? Are they old buildings?
- Find out all you can about any of these famous creative designers: Sir James Dyson, Dame Zara Hadid, Coco Chanel, Jimmy Choo.
- Write 3 sentences explaining why Creative Design is important.
- Take a trip to a toy shop and have a look at the soft toys. What do you like about the soft toys? Could any of the soft toys be improved in any way?
- Visit the Museum of Science and Industry and look at all the old machines that used to be used for making cotton. Find out three facts about cotton.