WELCOME BACK TO SCHOOL

We hope you all had a lovely break and are now raring to learn.

The new school lunch menu is available on the website.

Miss Fildes and Mr. Clark led our collective worship on Tuesday. The children learnt about the significance of Shrove Tuesday for Christians. Mr. Clark then made pancakes with the help of some children.

On Wednesday, Reverend David came to lead collective worship. He talked about the importance of Ash Wednesday and Lent to Christians.

Book Fair

The book fair will be in school from Wednesday next week (4th March) 3.15 until 4 pm each day until Tuesday 10th March. Please note that entrance to the book fair is through the main school entrance only.

Thank you for the overwhelmingly enthusiastic response to our Skywatch Night next Monday! Please arrive in your pyjamas at 6:00 for a bedtime story and hot chocolate. If the weather is clear, we will then head outside for some stargazing at 6:30. If the weather is cloudy, we will remain in the hall for a short astronomical video and Q&A session with Graham and Alan from Manchester Astronomical Society. We aim to finish by 7:30.

Pictures from the Eco Schools awards ceremony in December are now on the Eco Schools website. Visit www.eco-schools.org.uk/eco-schools-national-awards-winners-2019/for pictures from the ceremony. Click on the lifetime achievement award winner tab on the left to see more pictures and details of all the eco work Canon Burrows has undertaken in the last 25 years in order to win the first lifetime achievement award.

Next Thursday, to link with their current story, Reception will be going to The Lighthouse Church in Salford to take part in a vocal performance of 'The Princess & The Pea'. The children are invited to dress up as a prince, princess, or anything linked to the story.

We have had some lovely new equipment for lunchtimes and the playleaders have been busy leading new lunchtime activities.
